

Reading Champions player profile

Name: Andy Todd

Club: Perth Glory FC

Player information

Andy Todd plays as a central defender for Perth Glory.

Andy is the son of legendary Derby County and England player, Colin Todd. However, Andy began his footballer life as a trainee with Middlesbrough in 1992. After a brief loan to Swindon Town, Andy joined the ranks of the Bolton Wanderers and helped the team win the 1997 Division 1 Championship. He then briefly played for Charlton Athletic and Grimsby Town before starting with the Blackburn Rovers in 2002. Andy won the Player of the Year award and was given the captaincy in 2004. However, Andy found a home with his father's Derby County in 2007 and scored his first goal for the squad on 11 August 2007. On 22 April 2009 Andy signed with Perth Glory.

Player interview

Why do you read?

I enjoy reading as it helps me unwind from work and to use my imagination!

What book would you recommend to your fans?

The Da Vinci Code by Dan Brown. I love Dan Brown books because of the twists and turns in his writing. He keeps you thinking throughout his books!