Player Interview

What is it about reading that you enjoy?

The fact that it is something that you can do easily anywhere.

How does reading help you in your job?

It helps me to relax or switch off before a game. When travelling to away games, reading helps to pass the time. Reading also helps me to keep up to date with all the latest developments in the world of football.

When and where do you read?

On the coach on the way to away games. Sometimes in my hotel room the night before a match. Occasionally in my digs.

What got you into reading?

Being given books like Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde, to read at school. Reading footie magazines.

What would you say to someone who doesn't like reading to encourage them to give it a go?

The easiest way to get into reading is to pick a topic that you're interested in and read about that. If you're into football, then reading footie magazines or going on football websites can be really enjoyable.
