

Reading Champions player profile

Name: Ross Turnbull

Club: Chelsea

Player information

Ross Turnbull is a goalkeeper for Chelsea.

Ross came through the club's youth ranks and signed a professional contract in 2002. He represented England U20 in the 2003 FIFA World Youth Championship. Ross has since spent loan seasons with several clubs, including Darlington, Barnsley, Bradford City, Crewe Alexandra, and Cardiff City. He was in competition for the spot of first goalkeeper when he returned to Middlesbrough in 2007, but after a 2-1 defeat of Liverpool in 2008 he was able to secure his position. Ross now plays for Chelsea, as he signed a four year contract on 2 July 2009.

Player interview

What book would you recommend to fans as a good read?

Blessed by George Best an excellent read especially to a footballer like myself.

Why did you enjoy it?

This book allowed me to understand how George Best lived his life and how his control was taken away from him by alcohol that lead him to end his career early. I enjoy sporting autobiographies as well as sport psychology books as they are a topic I am familiar with and one that I enjoy