

NATIONAL LITERACY TRUST CONSENT FORM

The National Literacy Trust recognises the need to ensure the welfare and safety of all children and young people.

In its case studies, the National Literacy Trust uses images of children and young people in schools on its website to highlight good practice to other schools. We only upload images of children and young people where the school has confirmed that it has the consent of parents or guardians of the children who appear in the images.

Please fill in the information below and sign to give us the school's consent for the images for your case study to be uploaded to the National Literacy Trust website.

Please complete the file name of each of the photos (for example (Josh in library.jpg) and then tick which formats you agree it can be used for. Finally, we would ask you to sign the final column to give us your permission to use this image.
